Crest

When we have gone our separate ways,
all scattered far apart,
As leaves are scattered o'er the world
by playful gusts of wind,
And time has dimmed our memories.

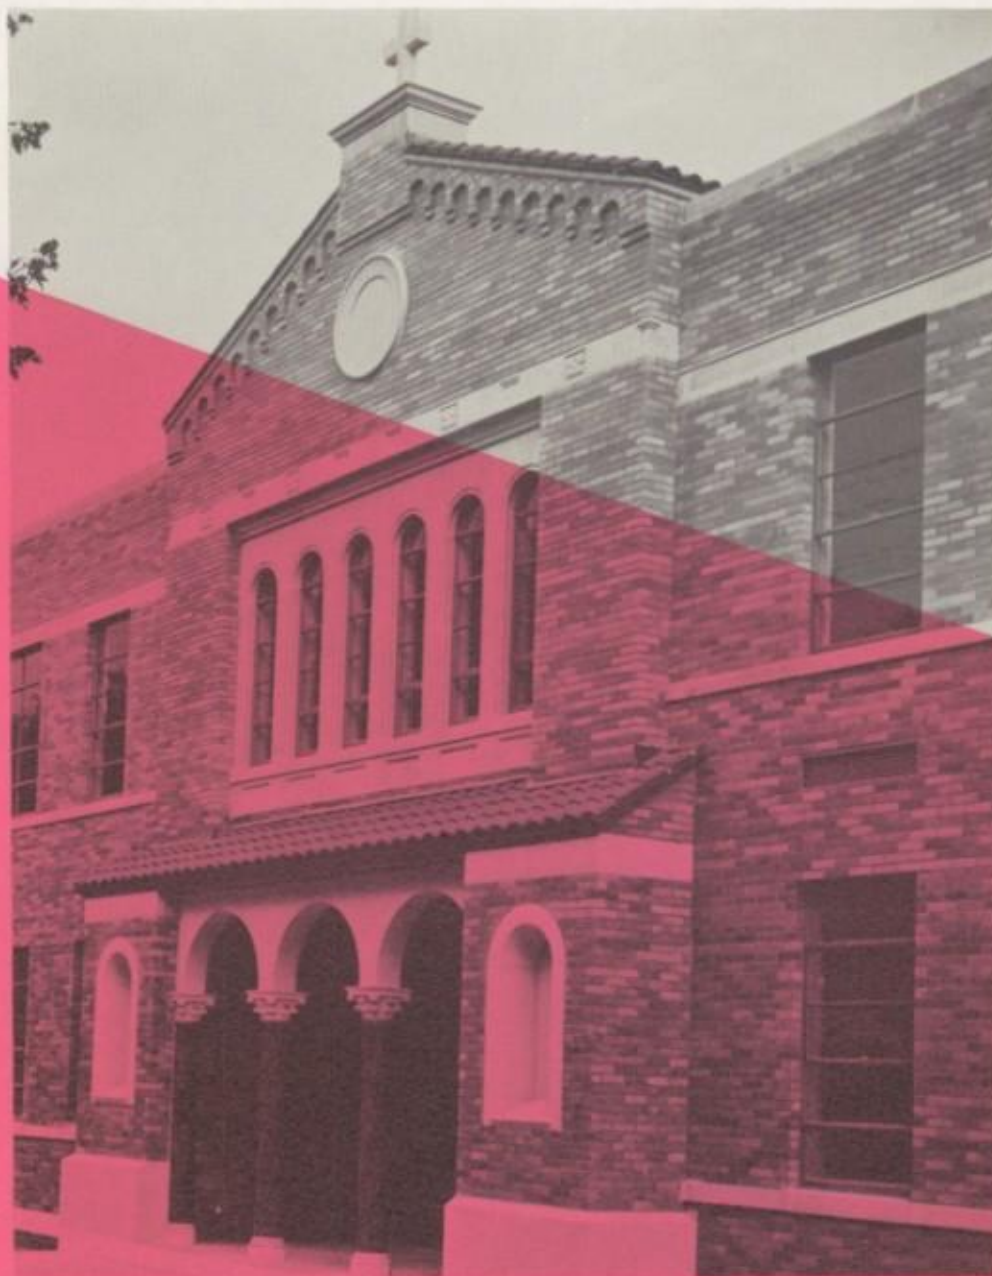

May this book be the bridge
across the broad expanse of years . . .
Back to friends and happy times
within these hallowed halls,
Back to these, our High School days.

The Crest

Published by the Senior Class of St. John High School

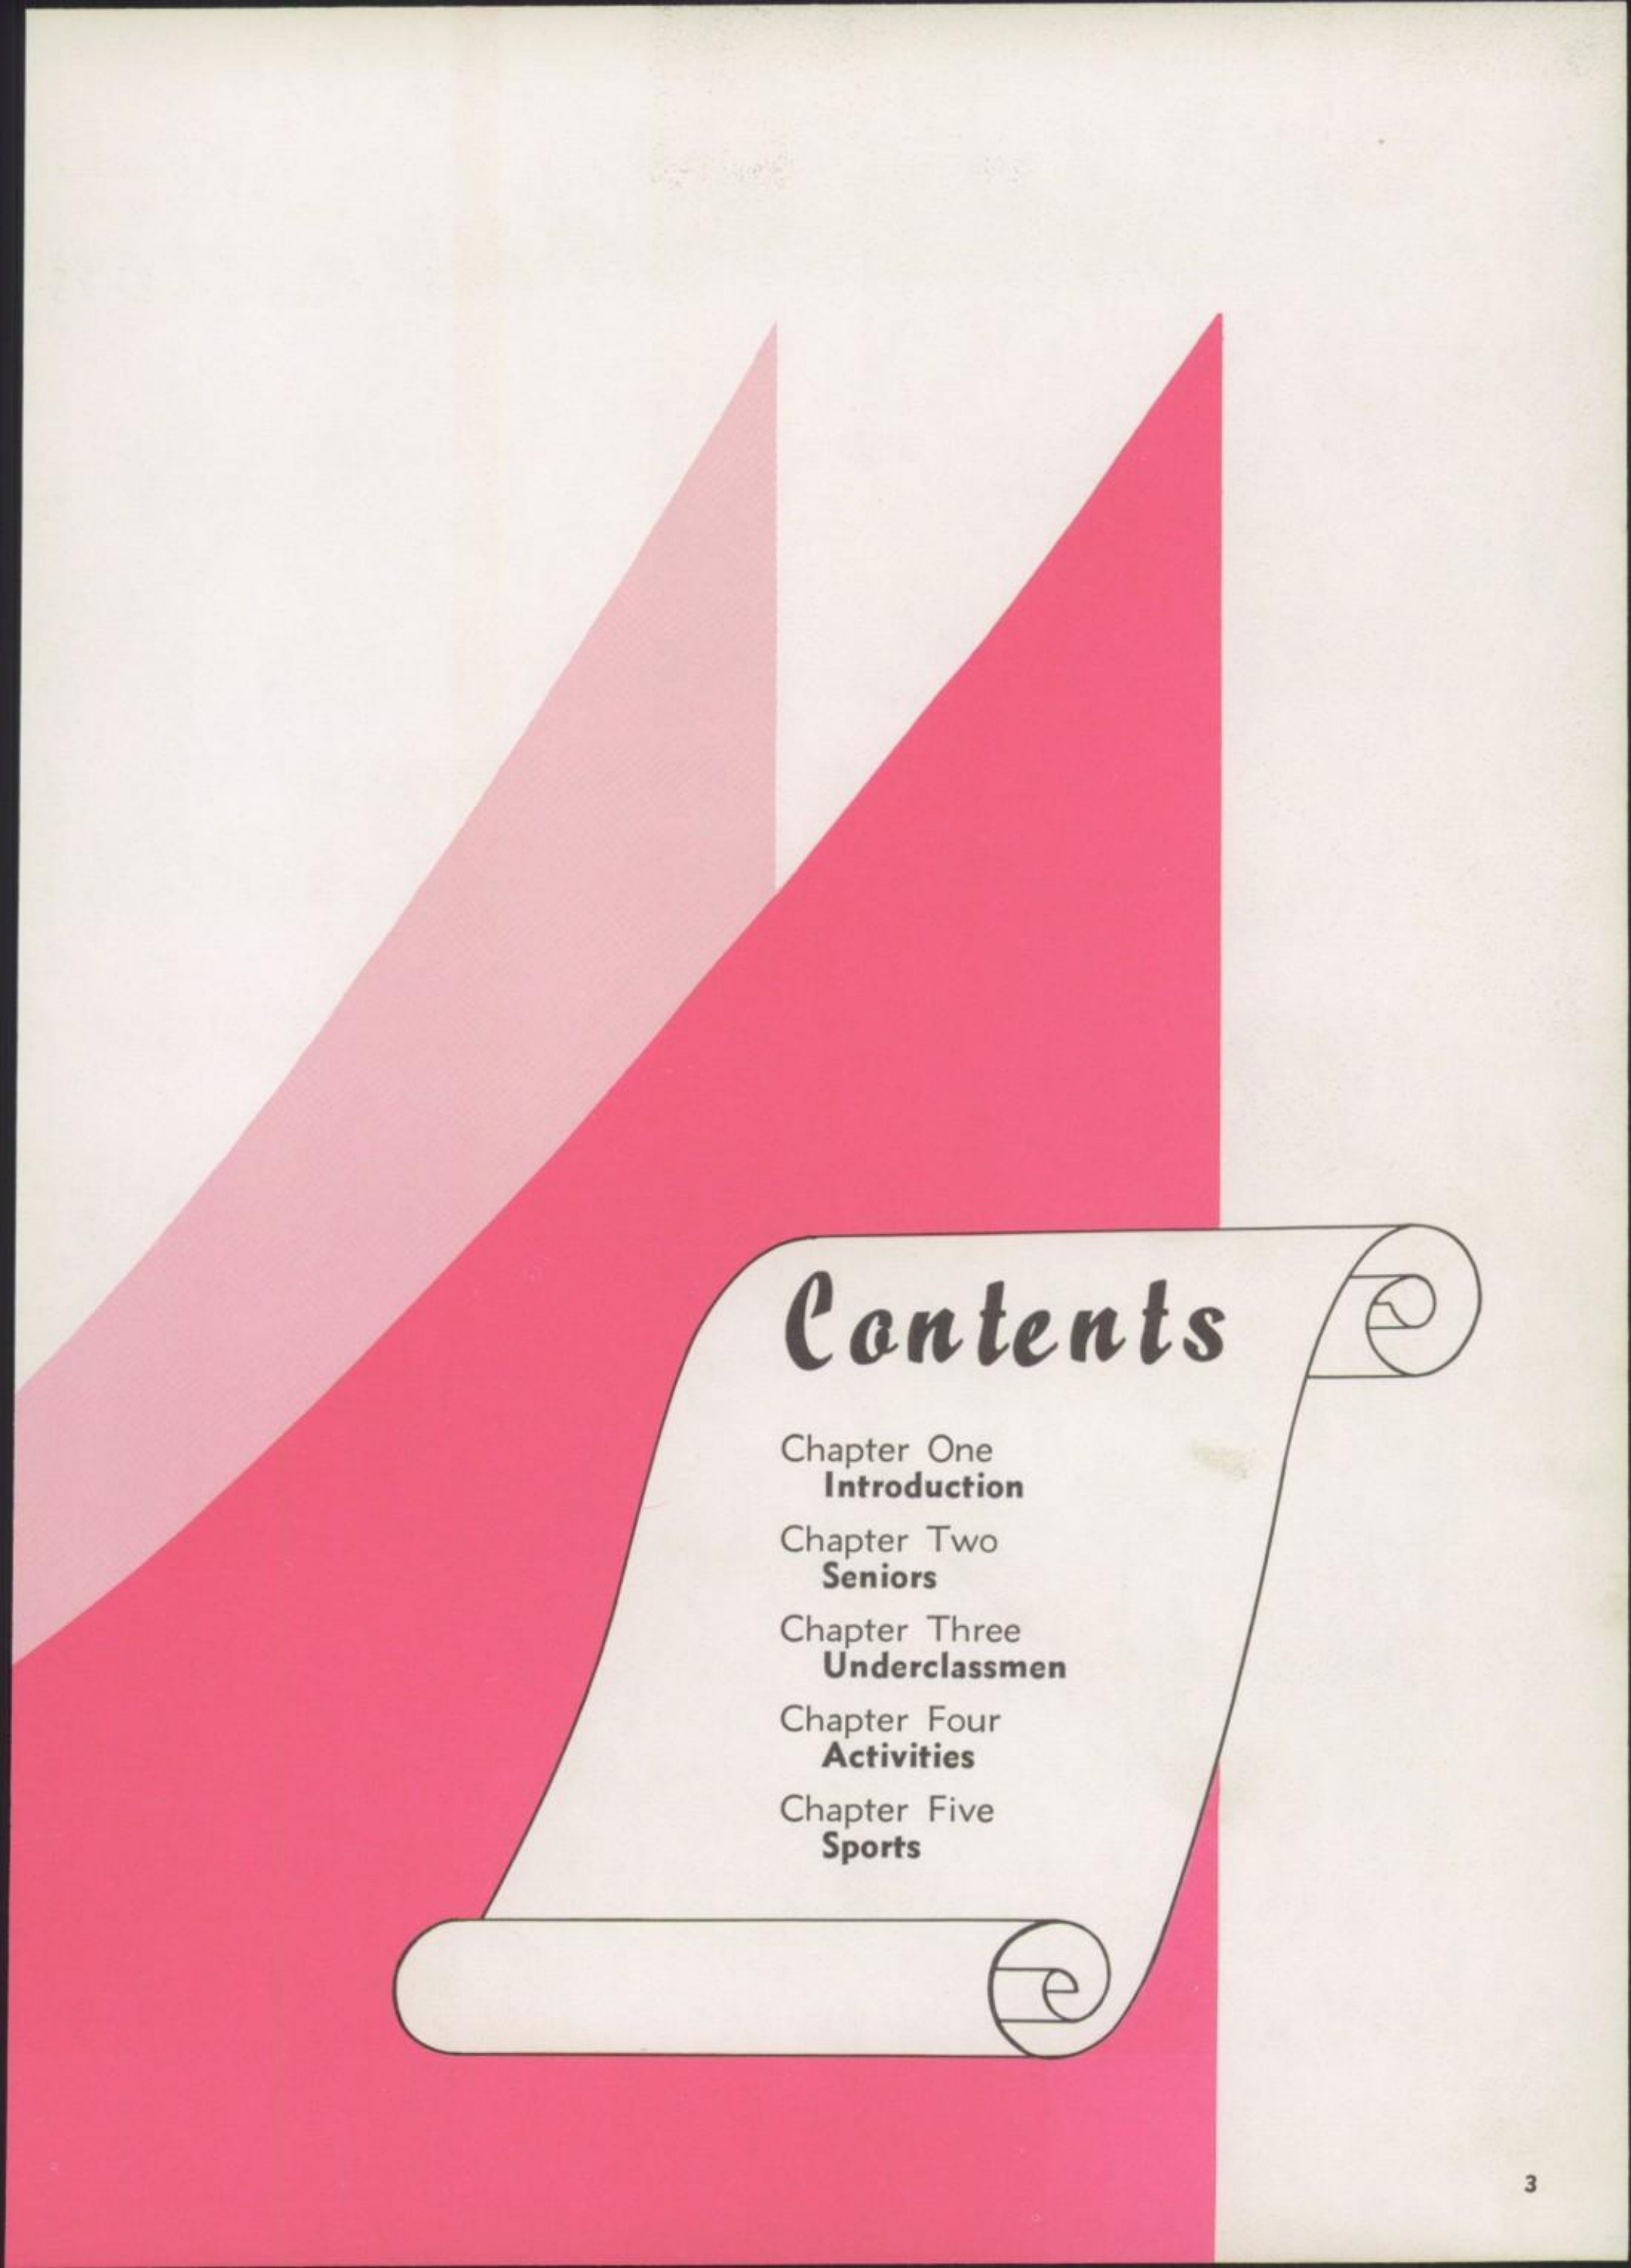

Delphos, Ohio

Dedication

The Reverend Thomas W. Kuhn Principal

Each day, Father, you have given yourself in Christ-like dedication to the needs of the students of St. John High School. We, the Graduates of 1961, are especially proud to be the first class to be guided through four years of high school by you. Words cannot express the deep admiration and respect our hearts hold for you, Father. We trust that our lives will be sufficient reward for all of your efforts in our behalf. As a slight token of recompense for all your priestly service to us, we are honored to dedicate to you, Father Kuhn, this, the Seventh Volume of THE CREST.

The Most Reverend
George J. Rehring
Bishop

St. John High School boasts of its o
UN in the persons of its three relig instructors. Father John Quenneve speaks for France to the juniors; Fath
John Hanaschek represents Austria
the freshmen; and the sophomores sho in the glory that is Ireland through Fath
Thomas Gorman.

The Right Reverend
Carl F. Reineck
Pastor

There's a new wing in the future for the St. John High School unit. Checking the blue print with Monsignor Reineck for the expansion program are the following councilmen, seated: Edward Clarke, Monsignor Reineck, and Cletus Baumgarte; standing: Robert Odenweller, Leo Fischer, and Oscar Kolkmeier.

The Reverend
Edward C. Herr

In Appreciation

St. John High students and alumni present "Silver Jubilee" wishes to the Reverend Edward C. Herr as he celebrates his twenty-fifth year in sacerdotal service for Christ the King. We pay tribute to a man who dedicated nineteen years of his priestly life to building and molding the character and spirit of SJH students. Our prayers and love follow him wherever he goes.

Activities

The Rev. Gerald Stein

Retreat Master

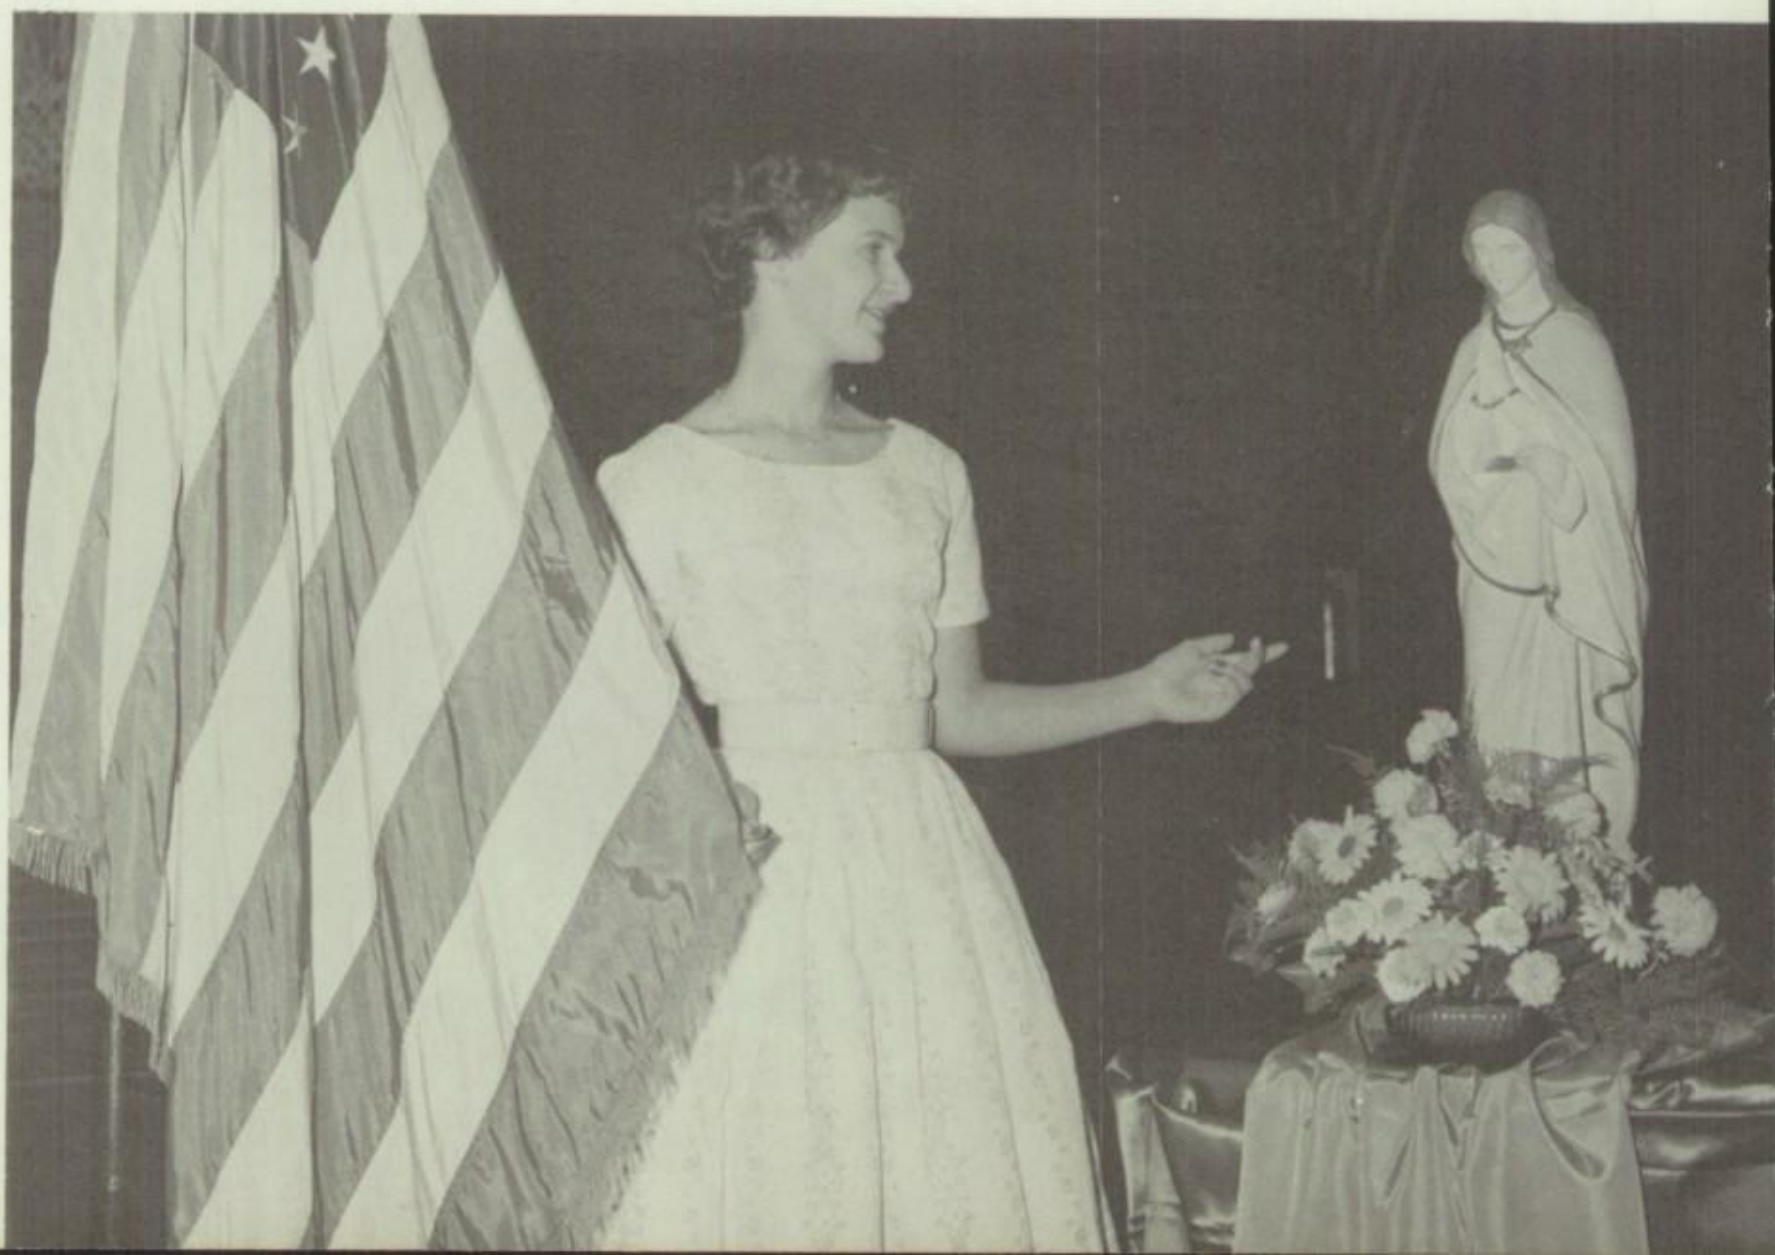

November 21-23, 1960

Retreat Meditorials

1. Ours is not a negative Christianity filled with DON'TS! We must scale the Heights of LOVE! Love of God and love of neighbor.
2. Little decisions must always be made in view of the BIG decision. Will this please God and help me save my soul?
3. It is beneath my dignity to do less than my best in anything I do, for I am serving my God.
4. We must supply what Christ lacks . . . He needs visibility . . . He needs OUR BODIES to carry on His works of love.
5. Sin destroys our unity with Christ. Sin is giving our body to the devil rather than to God.
6. Kissing is like sugar: it can easily become STICKY and SINFUL—for the unmarried!
7. Recipe for a BROKEN HEART: Marry an ALCOHOLIC. Remember that DRINKING TEEN-AGERS ARE SURE BET ALCOHOLICS.
8. Usually our parents will give us as much freedom as we PROVE WE CAN HANDLE. ("Kids" are treated, accordingly.)
9. When my God loves me so much that HE WANTS TO BE FLESH OF MY FLESH, how can I say "NO" to Him, refusing daily Communion?
10. Don't be afraid to answer God if He is calling you. He will supply whatever we lack. We only need give Him our hands and our hearts.

Exchange Student

Mary Elizabeth Dziekonski, exchange student from Chile, adopted Delphos St. John as her American "Alma Mater," during her senior year. Betty, a "Chile bean" from Santiago, shows devotion to Mary and patriotism to our flag.

Our Lady bestows a special blessing on the senior acolytes who have served her Son so devotedly in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass: David Helmkamp, Michael Stepleton, Jerald Osting, Richard Baumgarte, and Melvin Buettner.

Senior Acolytes

Oh where, oh where can it be
This is the question puzzling freshmen ancient history students, Marilyn Scherger, Gir-
ny Wiecher, Fred Kollsmith and Jim Menke.

History

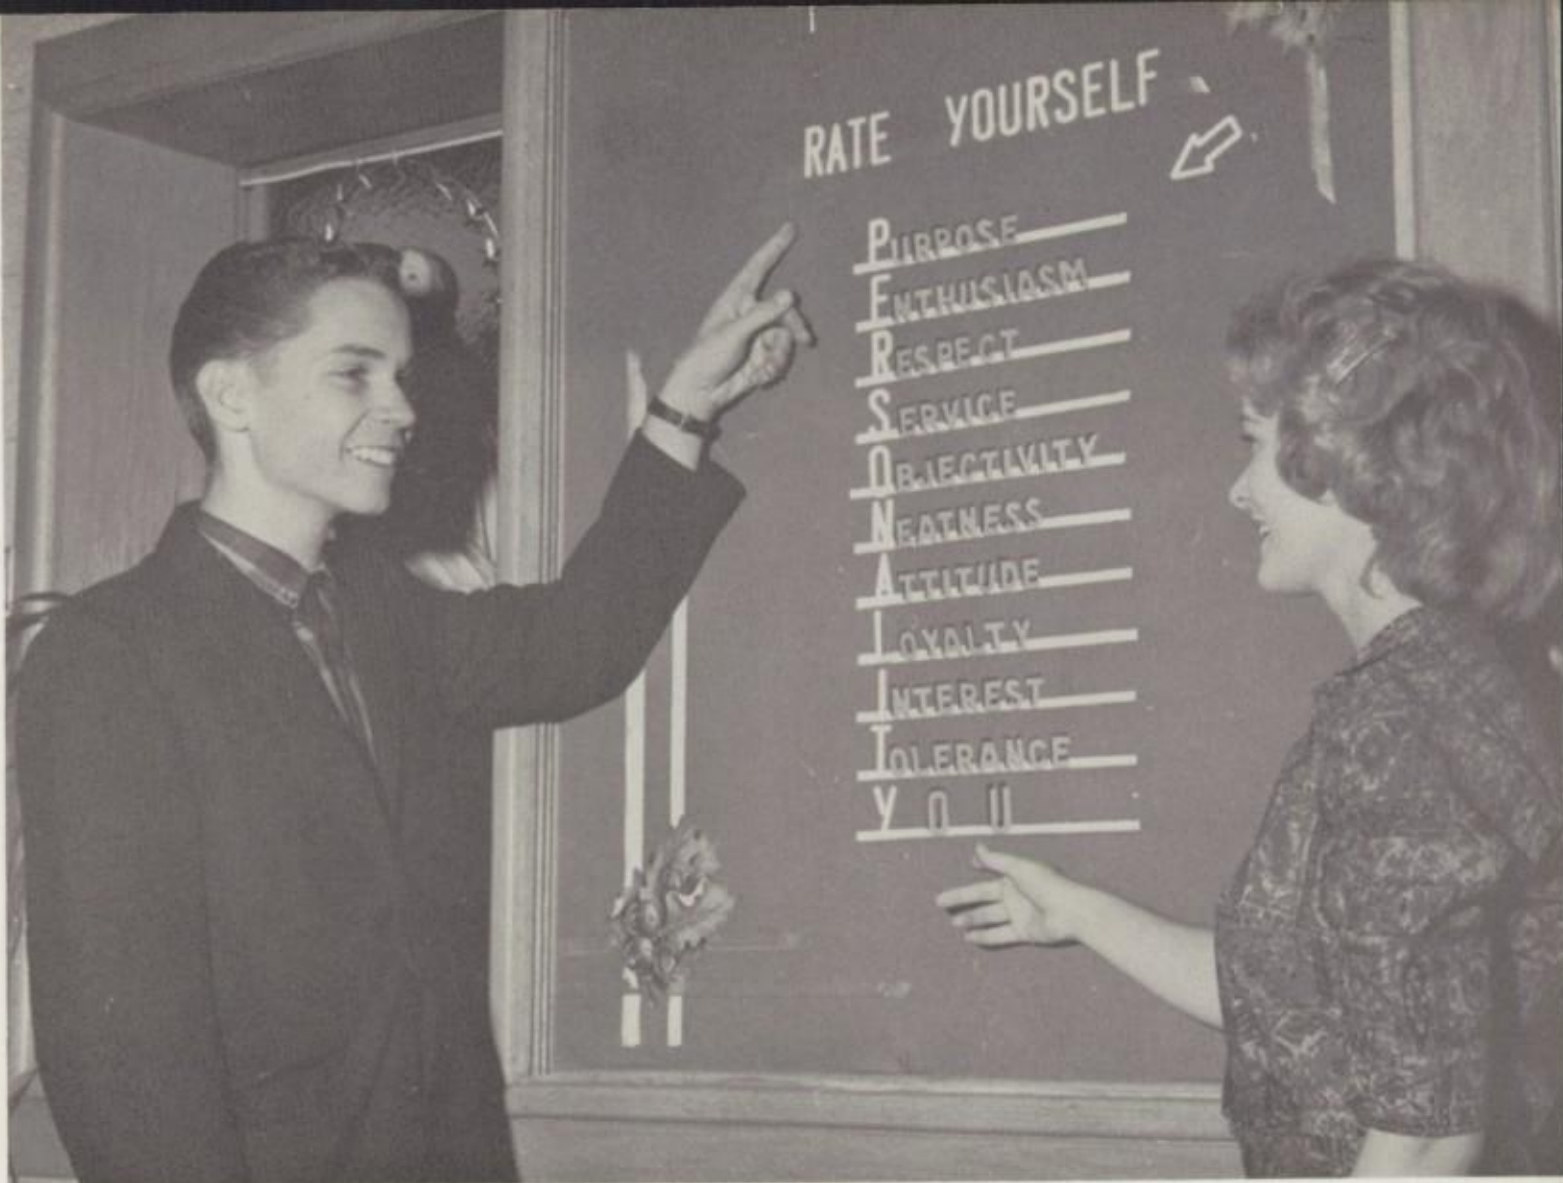

Electioners Linda Ricker, Bob Gordon, Phil Bryan, and Terrie Griffis determine the outcome of the political "mock election" sponsored by the American History students during the November presidential campaign.

Don't miss a vote, girls, for everything will count in the mock election! The tallyists include:
Margie Schwinnen, Joyce Mueller, Linda Rode, and Gary Miller.

Religion

Checking over the "Rate Yourself" list are Ricky Schneider and Ginny Osting. This list according to Ginny and Ricky, "Is sociology at its best!"

What's the score, Father? . . . According to Father Quenneville's expression, Bob Hiatt must have made the grade in the semester religion exam!

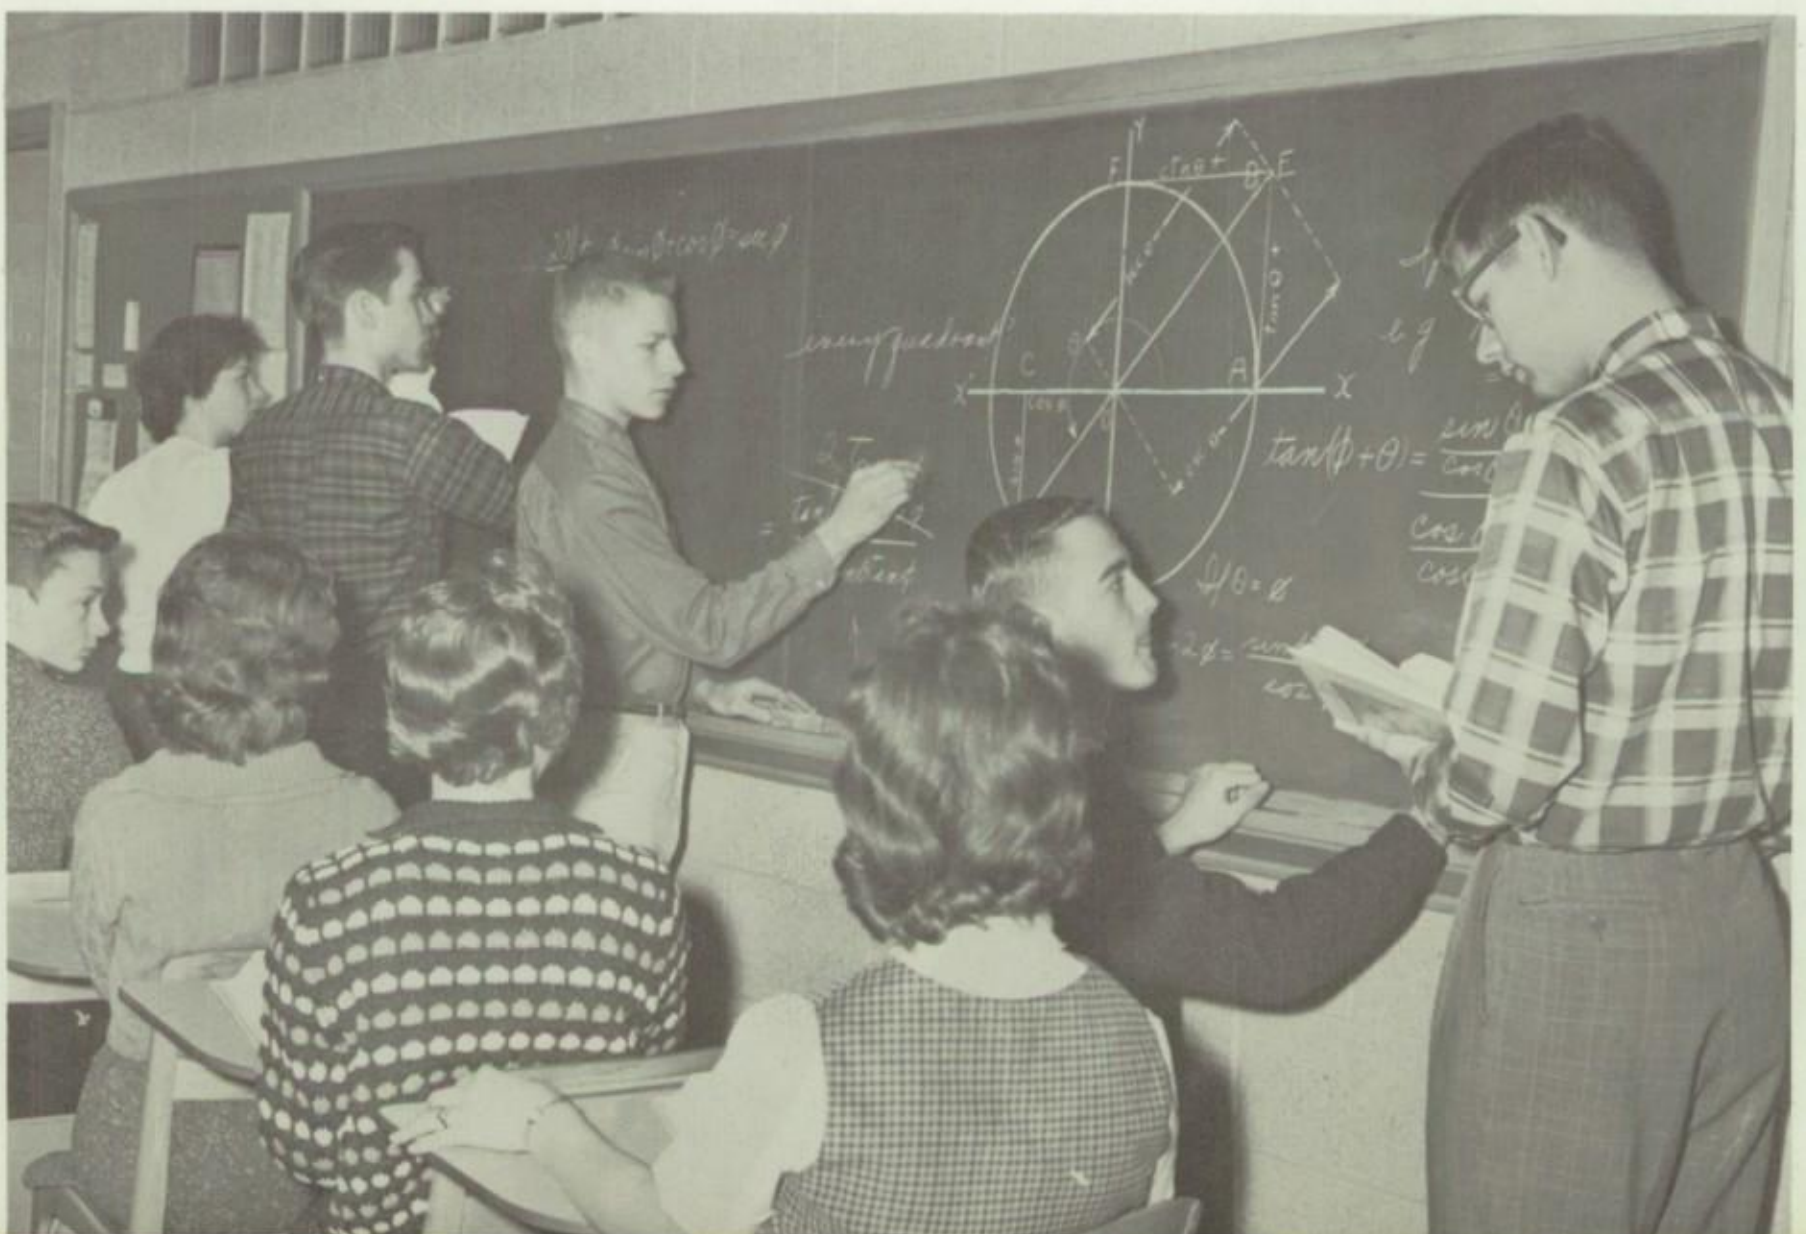

Math--Science

These General Science students are paving their way to sciences in this era of great explorations.

Who needs computers? The fourth year math students are trying to rule out such trivialities. The trigonometry students are Linda Allen, Ricky Schneider, Greg Gerschutz, Tom Fortener, and Ray Mueller. Watching the Einsteins at work are Dan Wurst, Ginny Osting, Frances Wiecher, and Lois Gerdeman.

Arnie Wienken and Donnie Osting examine the equipment of the traveling science instructor, Mr. Thomas Myser. Watch it, Arnie! You can't be a "big wheel" that way!

These seniors: Eugene Lause, Gary Eggeman, Melvin Buettner, and Richard Baumgarte display four reasons why the boys "go for" the mechanical arts course. Gary and Mel, don't you wish your drawings were inked as are Gene's and Dick's?

These biology students, studying the "hows and whys" of what makes life so beautiful, are displaying a few examples of the perfection of nature. They are Jeanne Urbine, Carol Liebrecht, and Bonnie Stallkamp.

Watch the chemicals, girls! The wrong substance will create *! *! *! *! . . . instead of H_2SO_4 .

Beginning typing can be fun! These sophomore enthusiasts are surely proving the point!

Business Education

Languages

News-happy Juniors pause to compare the old format of The Shield with the new. The 1961 Shield which is issued monthly, forms a high-school section in The Delphos Herald, city daily. The journalists are Ricky Hanser, Carol Heitz, Mike McKowen, Dianne Patthoff, Philip Bryan, Sandra Martin, and Robert Hiatt.

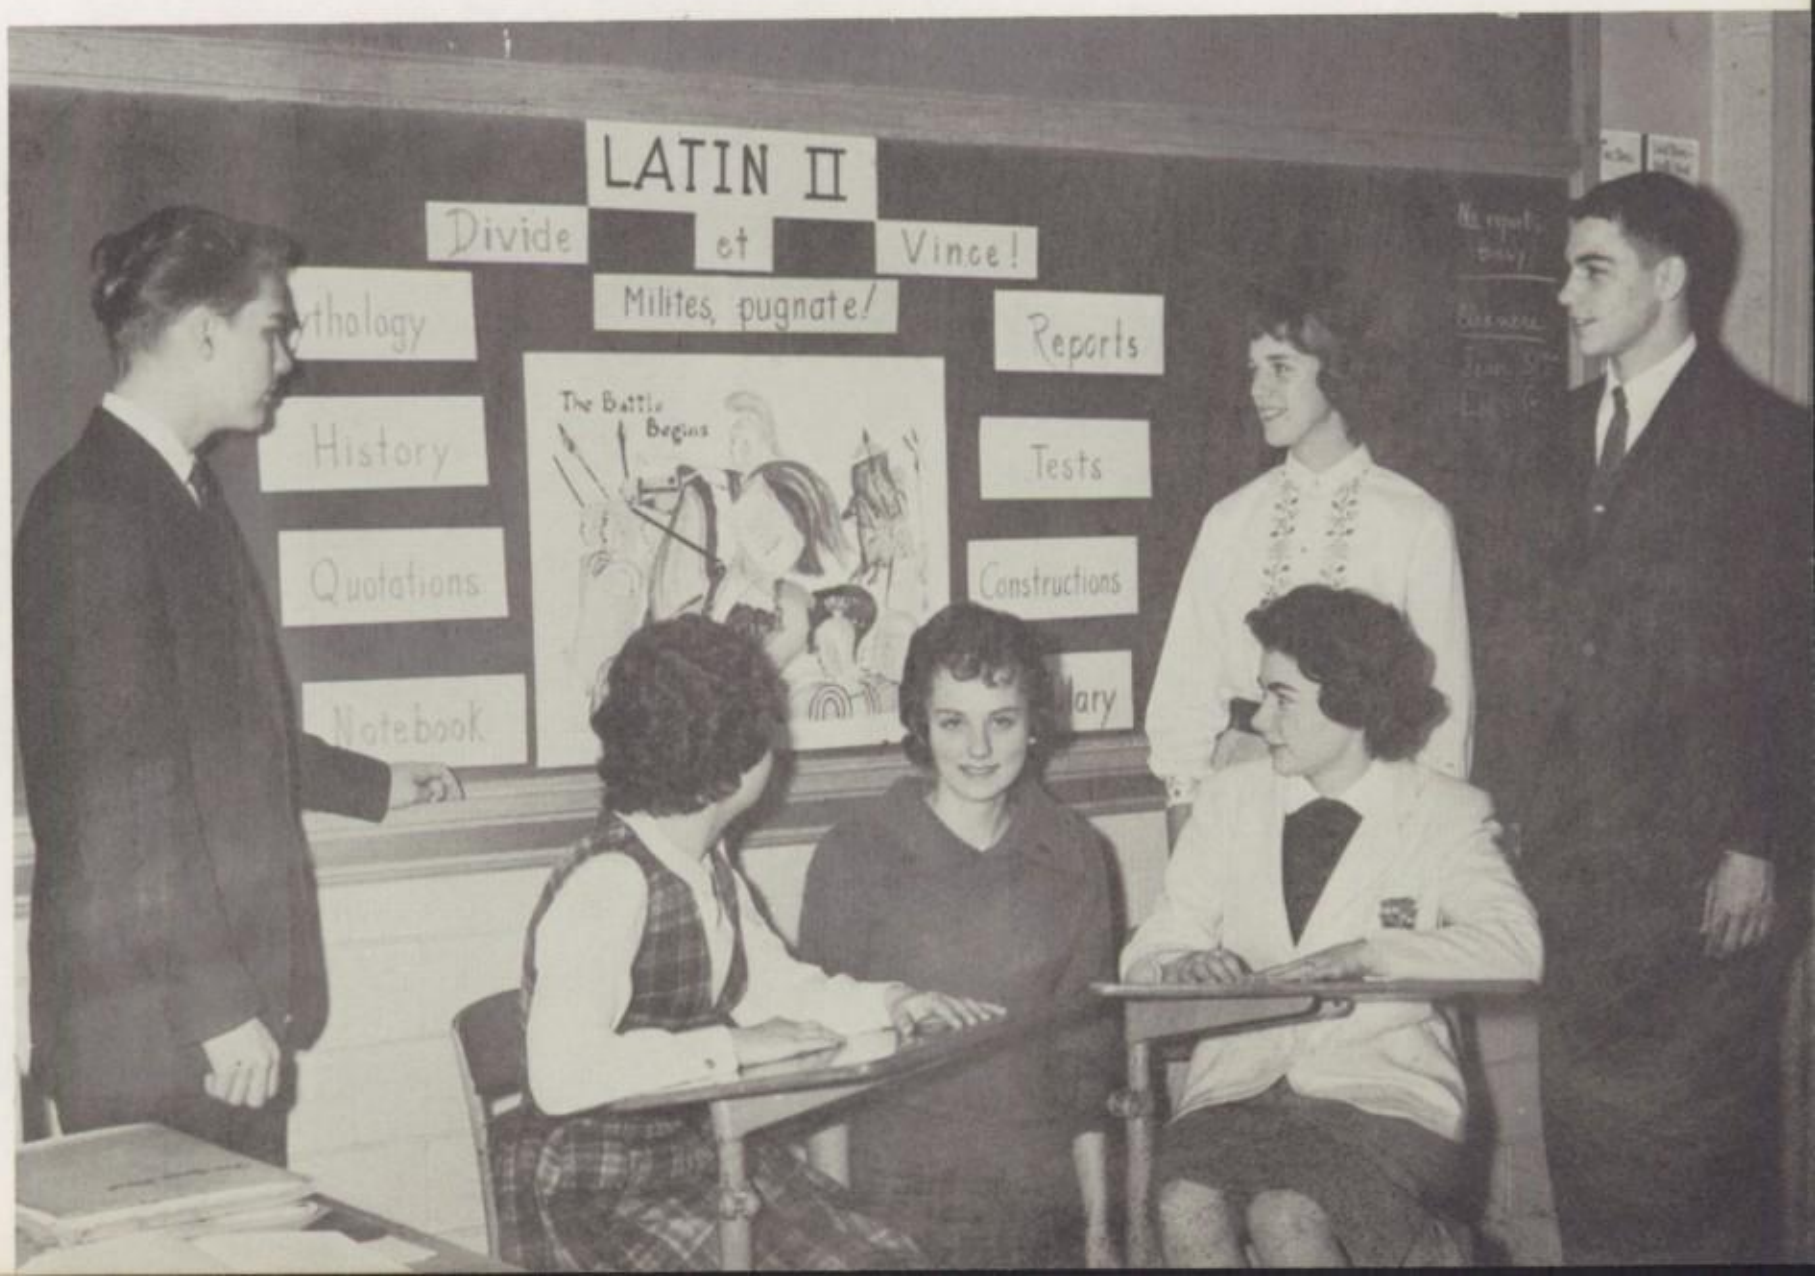

The Christmas story, according to St. Luke, was presented by this group of seniors of Sister Mary Madeleine's English IV. Ricky Schneider arranged the continuity, taped the carols, and rehearsed the vocal parts. Narrators: John Reis, Richard Baumgarte, Ronald Grothaus, Paul Deters, and David Goergens. Carolers: Thomas Fortener, Robert Weger, Charles Scherger, and Ricky Schneider. Gary Kimmet was absent at picture-taking time.

On the road to Latin, these freshmen Latin I students display their interest.

"All Gaul may be divided into three parts . . ." but for these sophomore Caesaronians their Latin course is divided into eight distinct areas: mythology, history, quotations, notebook, reports, tests, constructions, and vocabulary. Deciding "to divide and conquer" the assignments is the plan of Larry Williams, Jane Reddington, Janet Vorst, Sue Smith, Joyce Welch, and John Wiechart.

Home

Arts

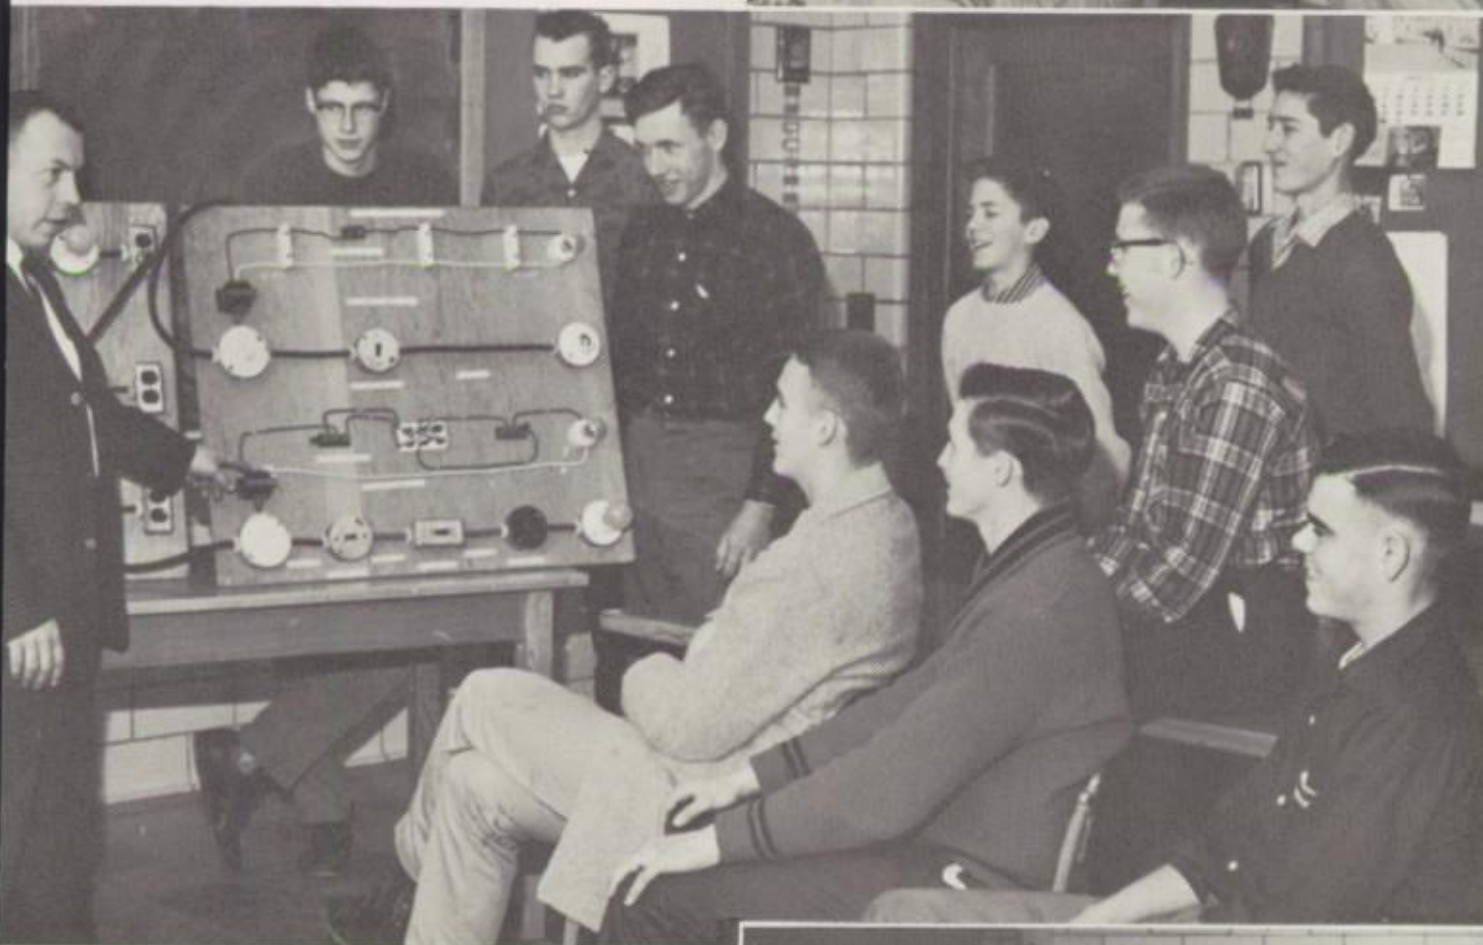

Presenting . . . home-makers of the future in three dimensions: Peggy Pohlman, Peggy Gerdeman, and Darlene Ricker.

Anyone for tea? Modeling their own creations are Janice Pothast and Velma Bonifas while Eileen Holdgreve and Peggy Gerdeman watch, sipping tea.

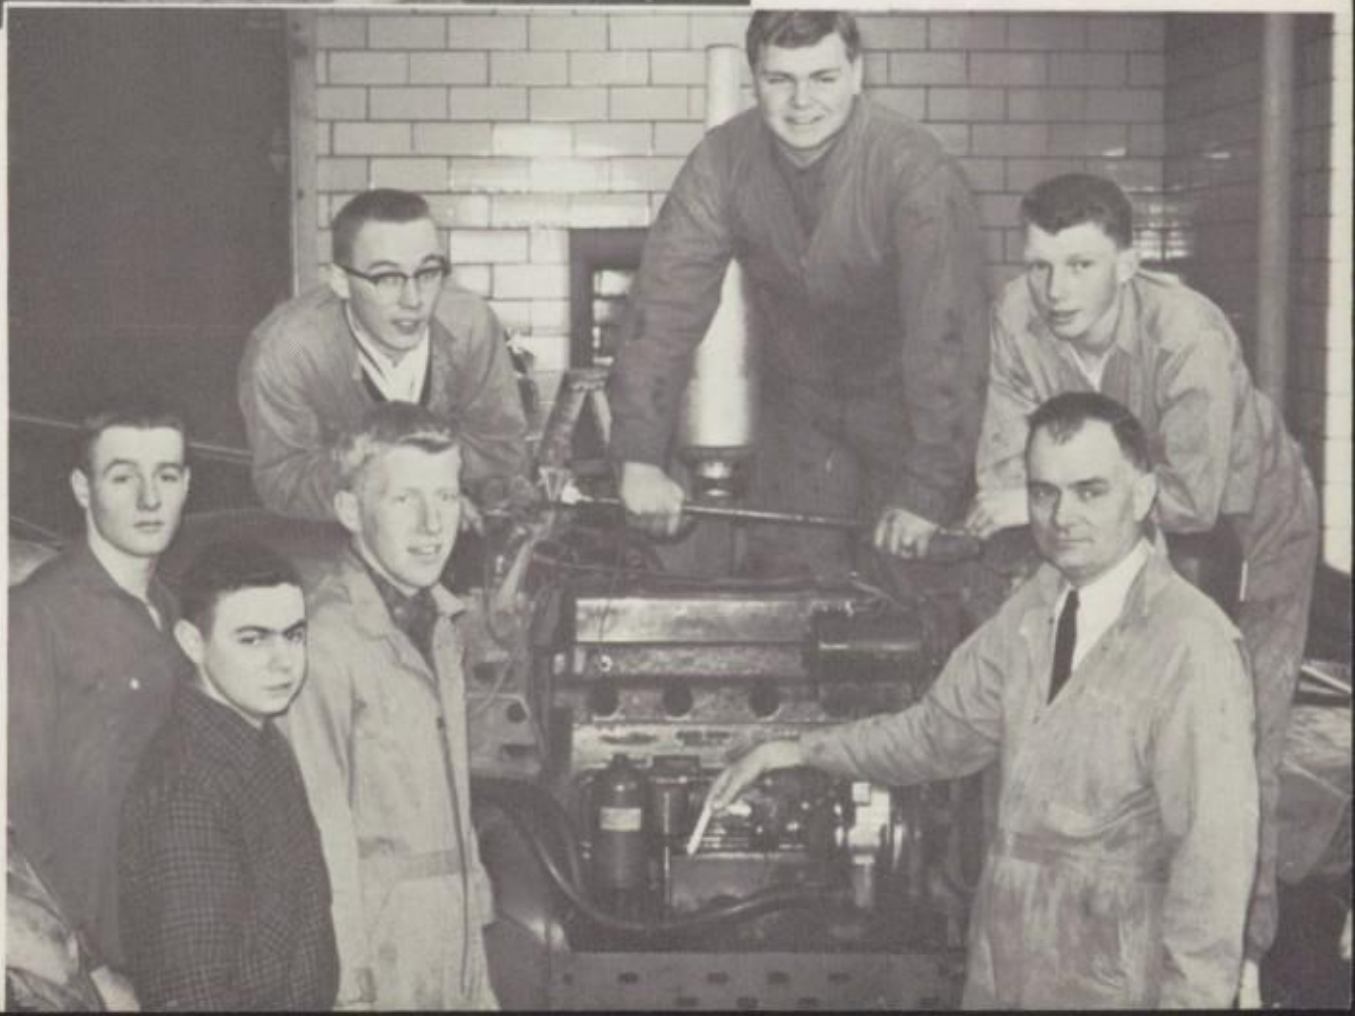

Manual Arts

Mr. Lloyd Smith is demonstrating how to set the points in the distributor of a tractor. Showing an avid interest in their work are Gary Schimmoeller, Mike Noonan, Ron Wittler, Roger Wurst. Lower: Steve Bockey, and Eugene Lause.

Learning the fundamentals of electricity from Mr. Arden Blythe are these Vo-Ag students: Ralph Hesseling, Tom Pohlman, Ken Renner, Dave Gerdeman, Bob Kramer, Dennis Kehres, Dave Leffers, Bill Stant, and Roger Lindeman.

Overhauling the "Big-M" under the direction of Mr. Smith are John Grone, Gene Renner, Mel Buettner, Ken Mueller, Dick Baumgarte, and Jerry Osting.

Homecoming

1961

Amidst an elegant setting, Queen Virginia Osting and her escort Student Council President Patrick Hanser descend the steps for the initial waltz of the evening. Following Virginia and Pat with a similar plan are Gary Kimmet and Marie Buettner, first honorary attendants.

St. John royalty pays tribute to the Queen of Heaven as the evening festivities get underway. Adding a touch of glamour to Our Lady's throne are Queen Virginia Osting, Pat Hanser, Velma Bonifas, Gene Renner, Gary Kimmet, Marie Buettner, Arnold Wienken, and Mary Jane Friemoth.

I Crown Thee Queen

Seniors Gary Kimmet and Dan Rupert share the coronation honors in dubbing Virginia—Queen of the Homecoming.

Queen Virginia rides to the stadium in high style. Flanking the Queen are miniature pages David Moenter and Steve Schimmoeller, friends of Virginia.

Beauty and charm combine in this pose of the Queen and her attendants on the lush blue and gold throne erected for the Homecoming Holiday. Paula Greulich, Larry Williams, Sophomores; Mary Lou Cramer, Michael McKowen, Juniors; Velma Bonifas, Gene Renner, Marie Buettner, Pat Hanser, Queen Virginia, Mary Jane Friemuth, Arnold Wienken, Seniors; Joann Shumaker, Richard Lauser, Juniors; Jane Kill, Richard Dickrede, Bonnie Stallkamp, and Gene Klaus, Sophomores.

All Hail to the Queen!

Miss Virginia Osting

Trophy Twirlights

Miss Crest, Marie Buettner, and Mr. Crest, Patrick Hanser, pose primly with their runners-up in the Subscription Campaign, Frances Wiecher and Raymond Mueller.

The Crest staff presents . . . the hostess of the Crest program with the mostest, Frances Wiecher.

Be sociable with a smile! That's just what Dee Ann Westrich and Gary Kimmet are doing for Master of Ceremonies, James Lang.

Organization at its best! This describes the committee of juniors of the Crest dance. Seated: Penny Sever, Joann Shumaker, Mary Lou Cramer, Carol Heitz, and Janet Johnson. Standing: Rick Hanser, Denny Kill, Mike McKowen, Bob Hiett, Jim McCabe, and Bill Van Pelt.

Four phases of SJH life and four sparkling smiles display this zest: Miss Band, Margie Knebel; Miss Majorette, Lois Hageman; Miss Student, Linda Rode; and Miss Shield, Mary Lou Cramer.

Faculty and Graduates—what a combo! The line forms to the left: Miss Lay Faculty, Connie Remlinger; Mr. Graduate, Ray Mueller; Principal Father "Butch" Kill; and Miss Graduate, Ginny Osting.

Adding a touch of glamour to an already attractive setting are Agnes Hempfling and Lois Hageman.

Highlighting the seasons of sports are three examples of masculinity: Dick Groat, alias Rick Hanser; Wilt Chamberlain, alias Dave Wiechart; Norman Van Brocklin, alias Gene Hickey; and a sparkling cheerette, Agnes Hempfling.

Trophy winners, "Miss Marie Crest" and "Mr. Pat Crest" scintillate happiness at its mostest.

Readin', Ritin', and Rithmetic . . . Representing the tender classmen in their green years are Valeta Wallenhorst and Bob Mueller.

Honor-Merit Students

Marie Buettner and Roger Weigle really have something to crow about! Rating as top sellers in the ticket festival campaign is their claim to fame.

1960

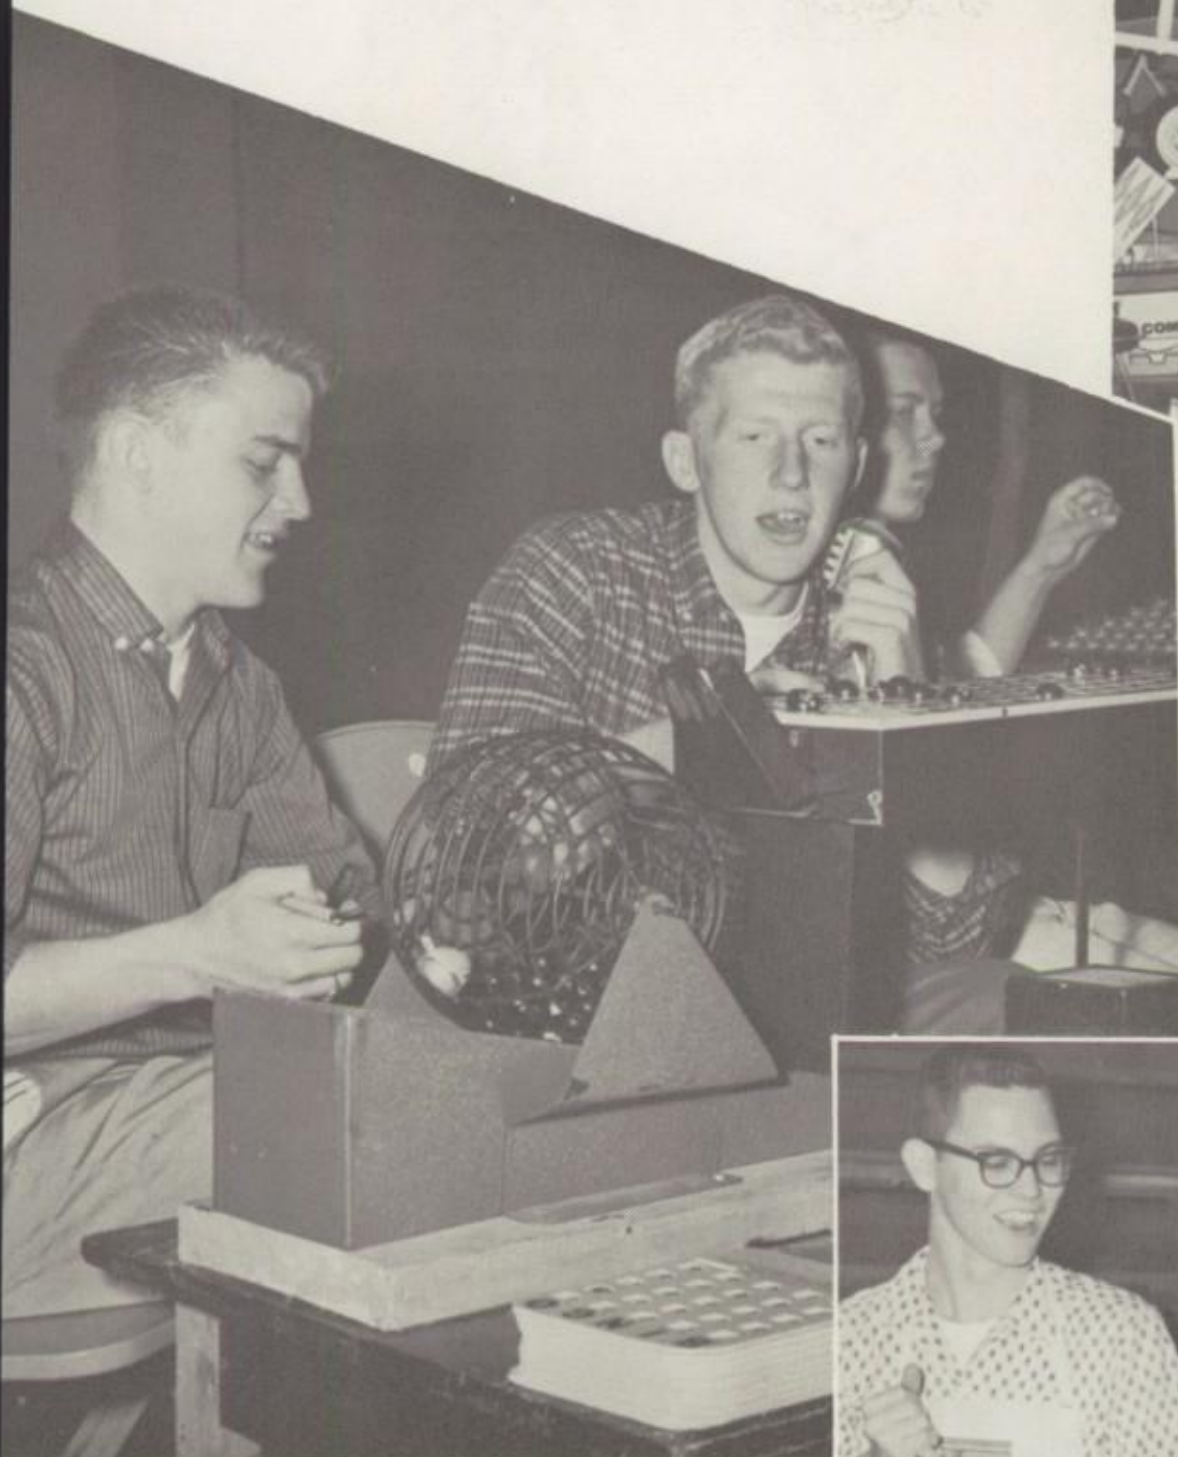

Festival

Frolic

"Round and round it goes. Where it stops, nobody knows," shouts Barker Dave Lisk, with Big Wheel, Gary Schimmoeller, as assistant.

There is Tubo McCabe with the candy and Jerry Osting taking in the money!

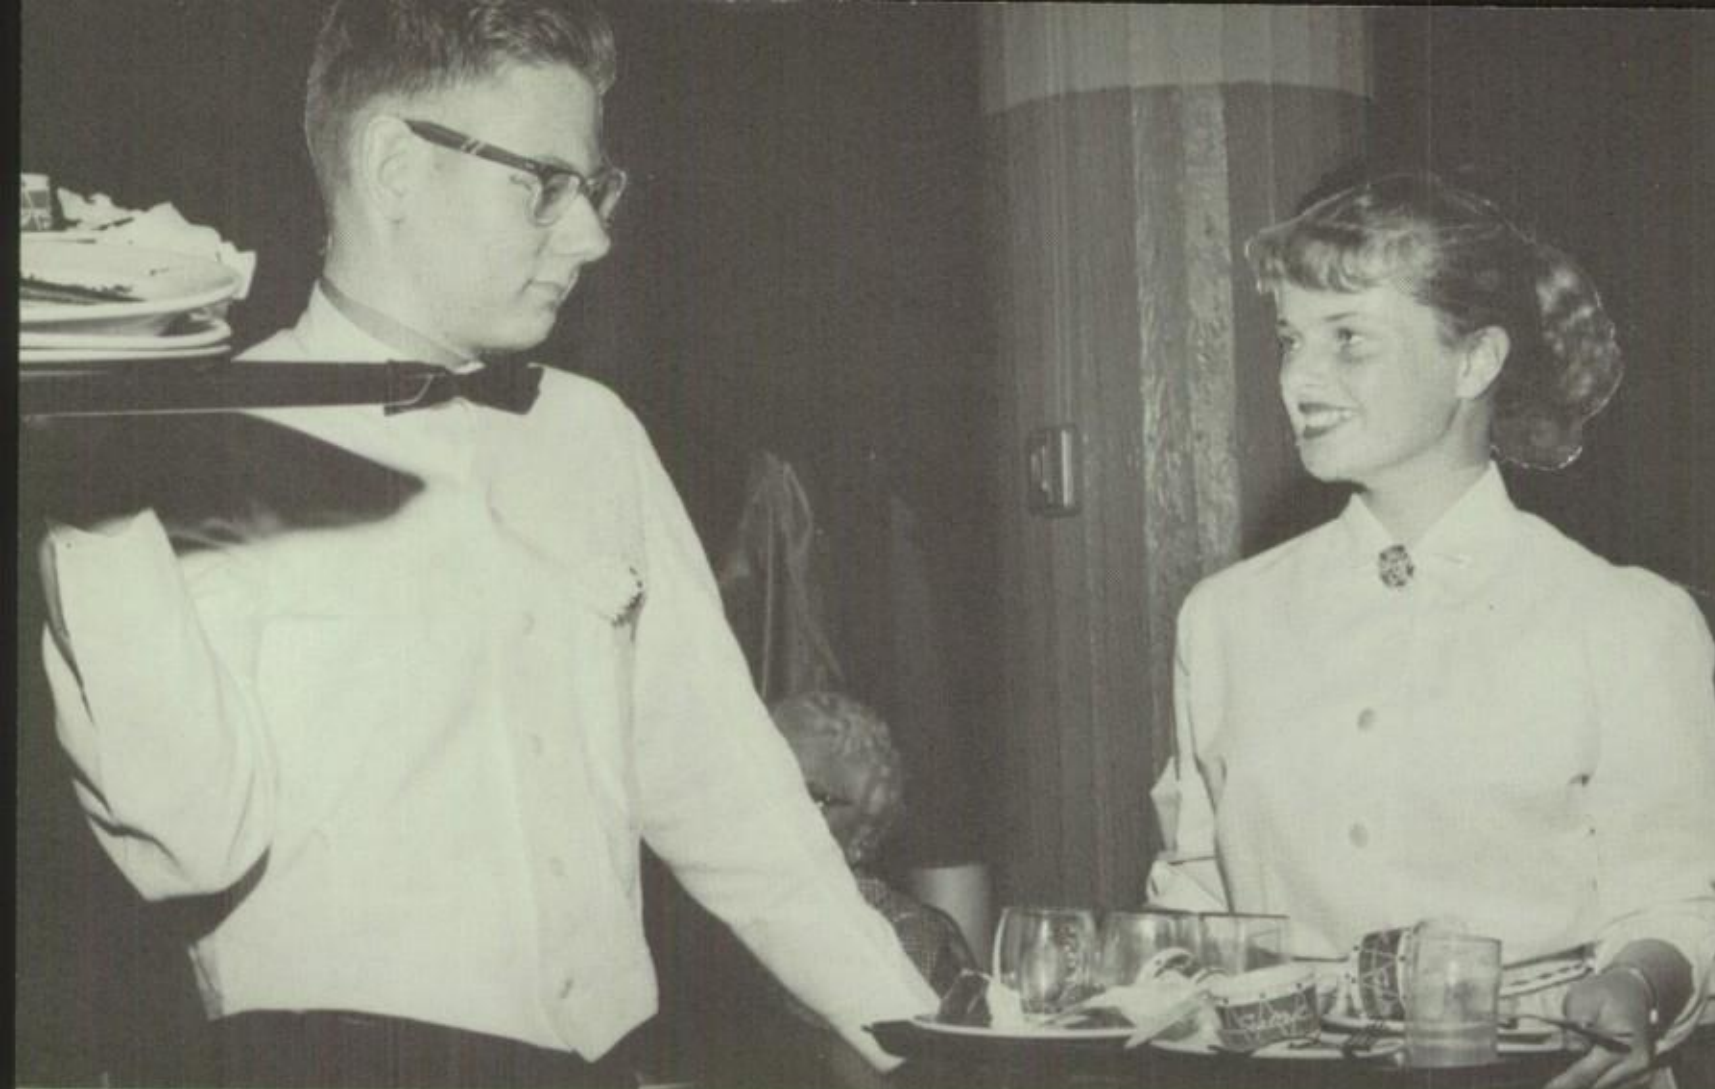

B I N G O ! Mel Buettner, assisted by Jack Reis and Dan Rupert, add their masculine touch to the Children's Festival.

Bob Hiatt tries his salesmanship charm at Fair.

Gus Plumpe and Dave Helmkamp had Shylock's task of raking in money at the "Penny Pitch" during the annual Children's Festival.

Exchanging smiles in the midst of the busy turmoil of church fair duties are Roy Mueller and Helen Eggeman.

Jack and Jackie Kennedy, Crest parakeet mascots, have been keeping steady company in the staff room where they preside over the production of the annual. Senior writers have learned from them that "steady company is strictly for the birds!"

Shall we dance? The C.S.M.C. quintet: Gary Kimmet, Sue Smith, Ginny Osting, Barb Shenk, and Pat Hanser, accompanied by Ann Reinemeyer are ready for their next number . . . So, shall we dance? . . . cha, cha . . . cha, cha, cha!

Mr. Jack "Ricky Schneider" Kennedy and Mrs. Jackie "Peggy Pohlman" Kennedy are posing with their daughter, Caroline, "Mary Jo Hickey." These political socialites attended the annual Crest rally to help boost the "boosters of SJH."

All hepped up for the pepped up Homecoming Dance are Charlie Ellis, Jim Neumeier, Wayne Hotz, Dolly Hotz, and Carolyn Hollar. Penny Sever dishes in the money.

"Lordy be, I can't believe mah eyes!" screeches masquerader, Carol Rode! The beheaded man is James Menke.

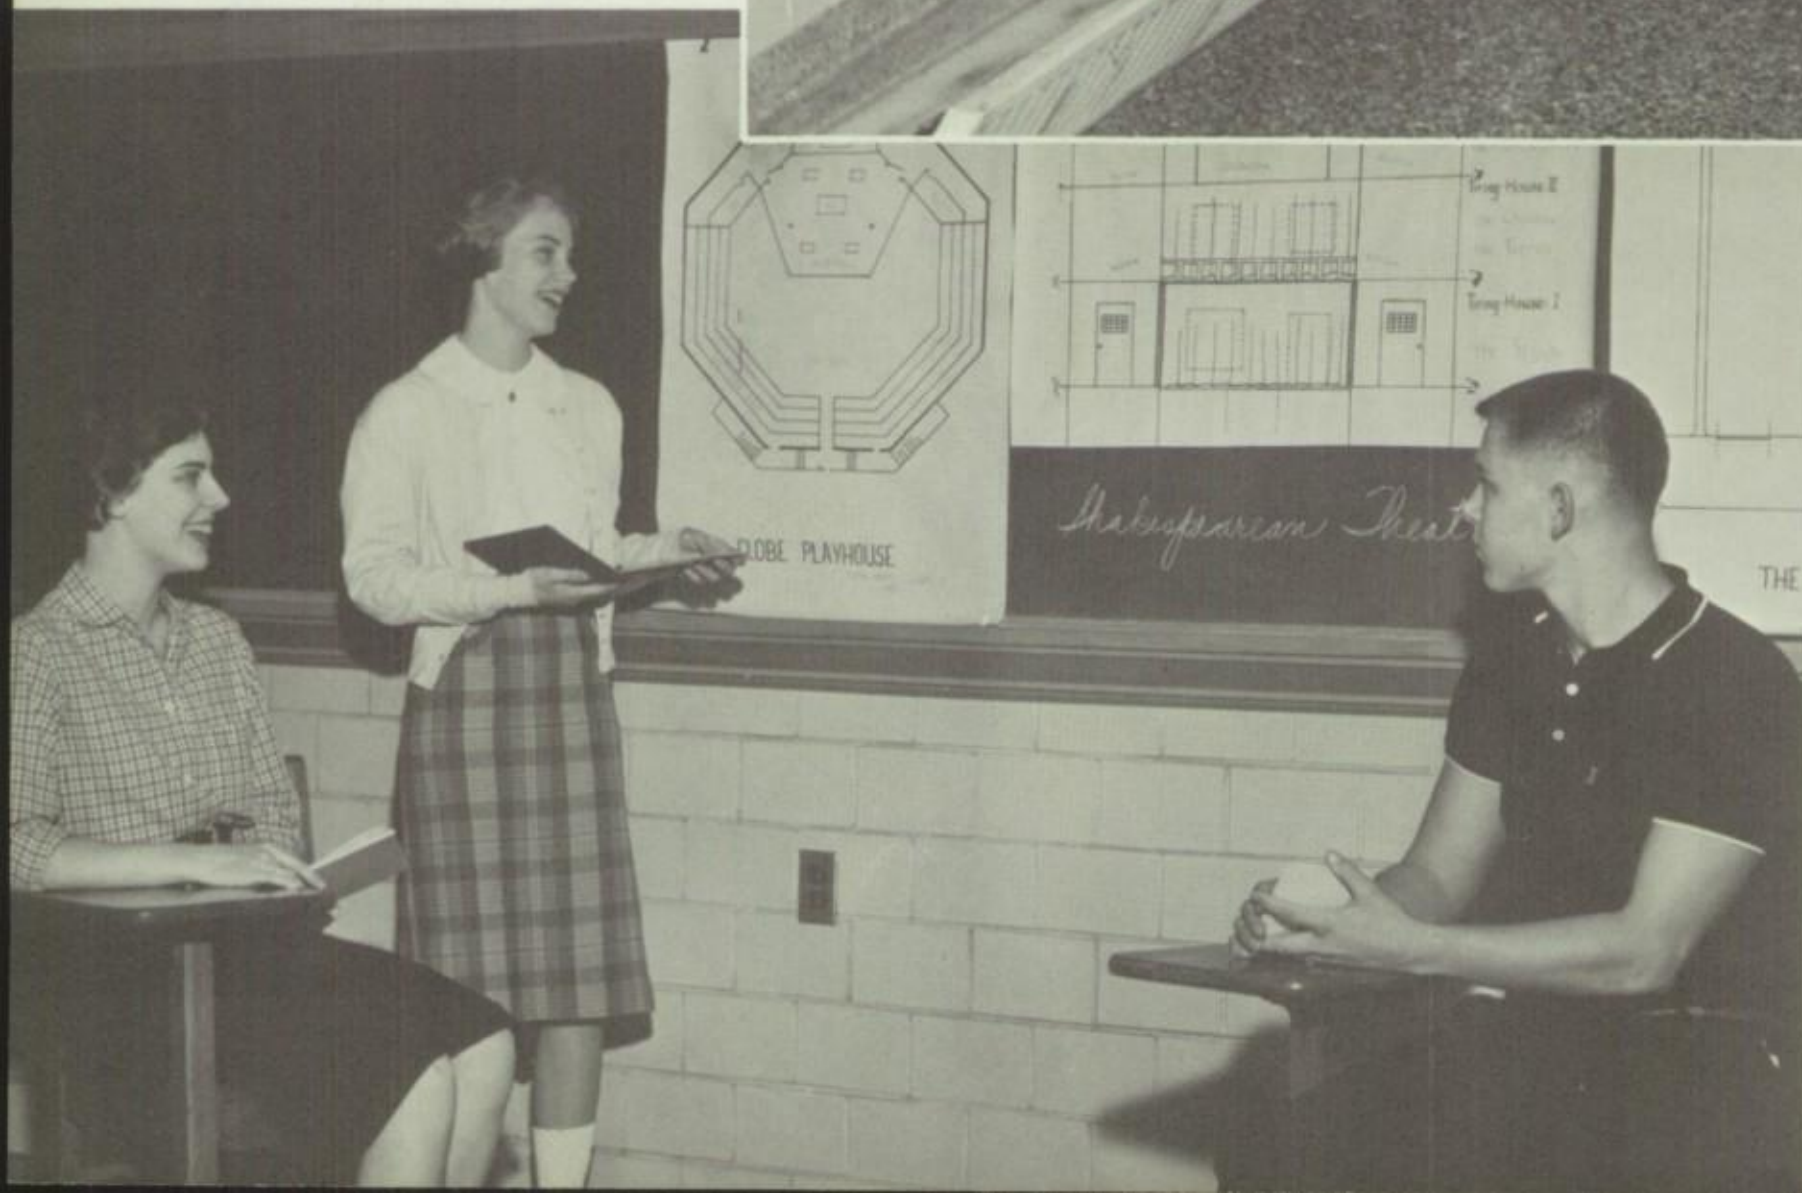

Seventeen college pre physics students receive a workout as science teachers for a day: Bob Weger, Linda Allen, Myrna Bradshaw, Lois Gerdeman, Frank Wiecher, Jane Freund, Tom Fortner, Rosie Eversole, Ginny Osting, Ray Mueller, Gary Kimmet, Charlie Scherger, Rick Schneider, Pat Hanser, Ralph Holdgreve, and Gre Gerschutz.

"Who turned up the thermostat again?" This is the password for our always-needed Mr. Ollie Sever, plant engineer.

Ann Reinemeyer, Frances Wiecher, and Daniel Rupert delve into the Elizabethan Period in English IV.

'The Merchant of Venice'

Carol Keefe (Portia) is the object of attention from John Knight (Bassanio, right) and Roger Cornish (Lorenzo, left) in Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice" as produced by Players Incorporated. The comedy was played before a full house on November 8, 1960, in St. John's Auditorium.

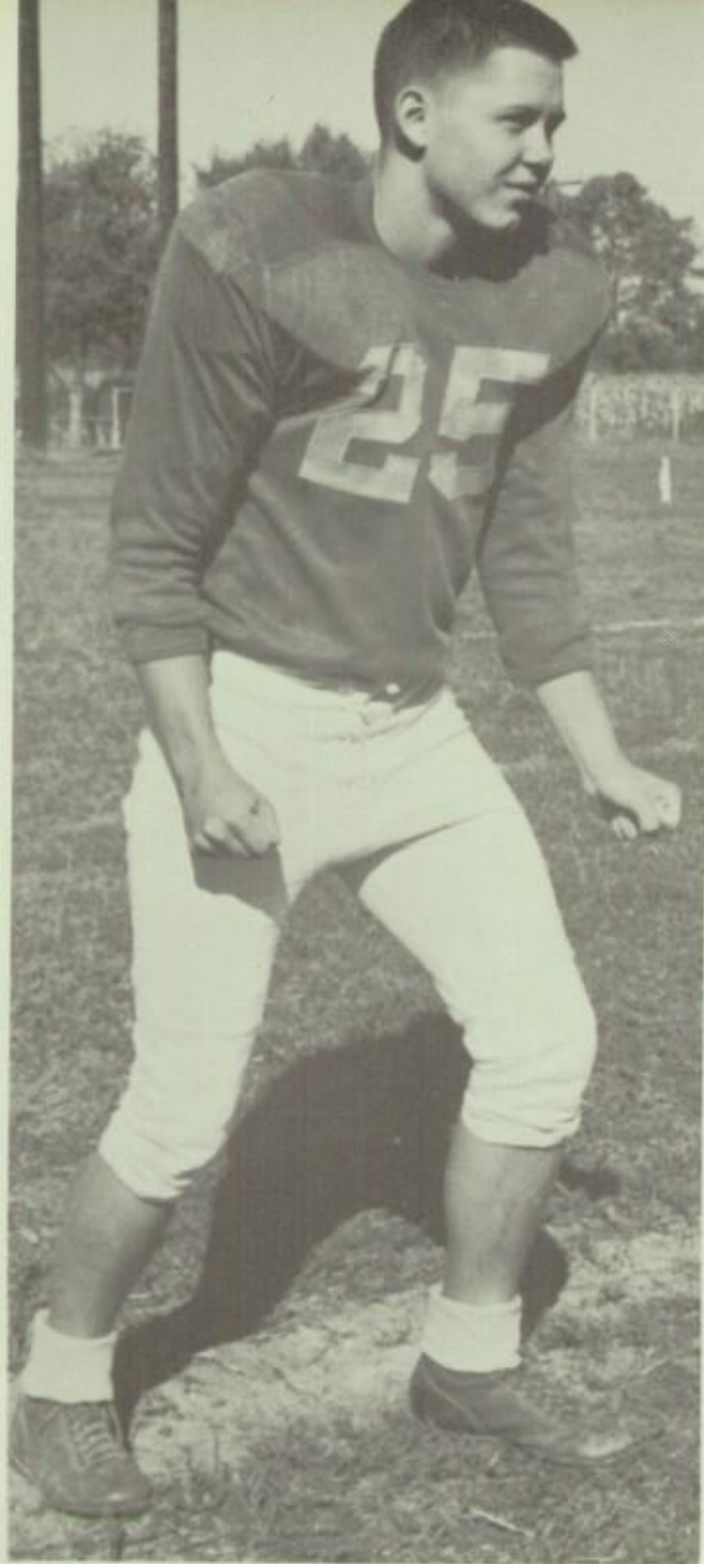

Athletics

First Row: Ron Baumgarte, Mike Odenweller, Denny Lause, Dave Bracker, Jack Wiechart, Bill Brennan, and Ron Halter. Senior Trio Spark 1960

Blue Jay Action Gridders

Co-captain Dan Rupert

(Guard)

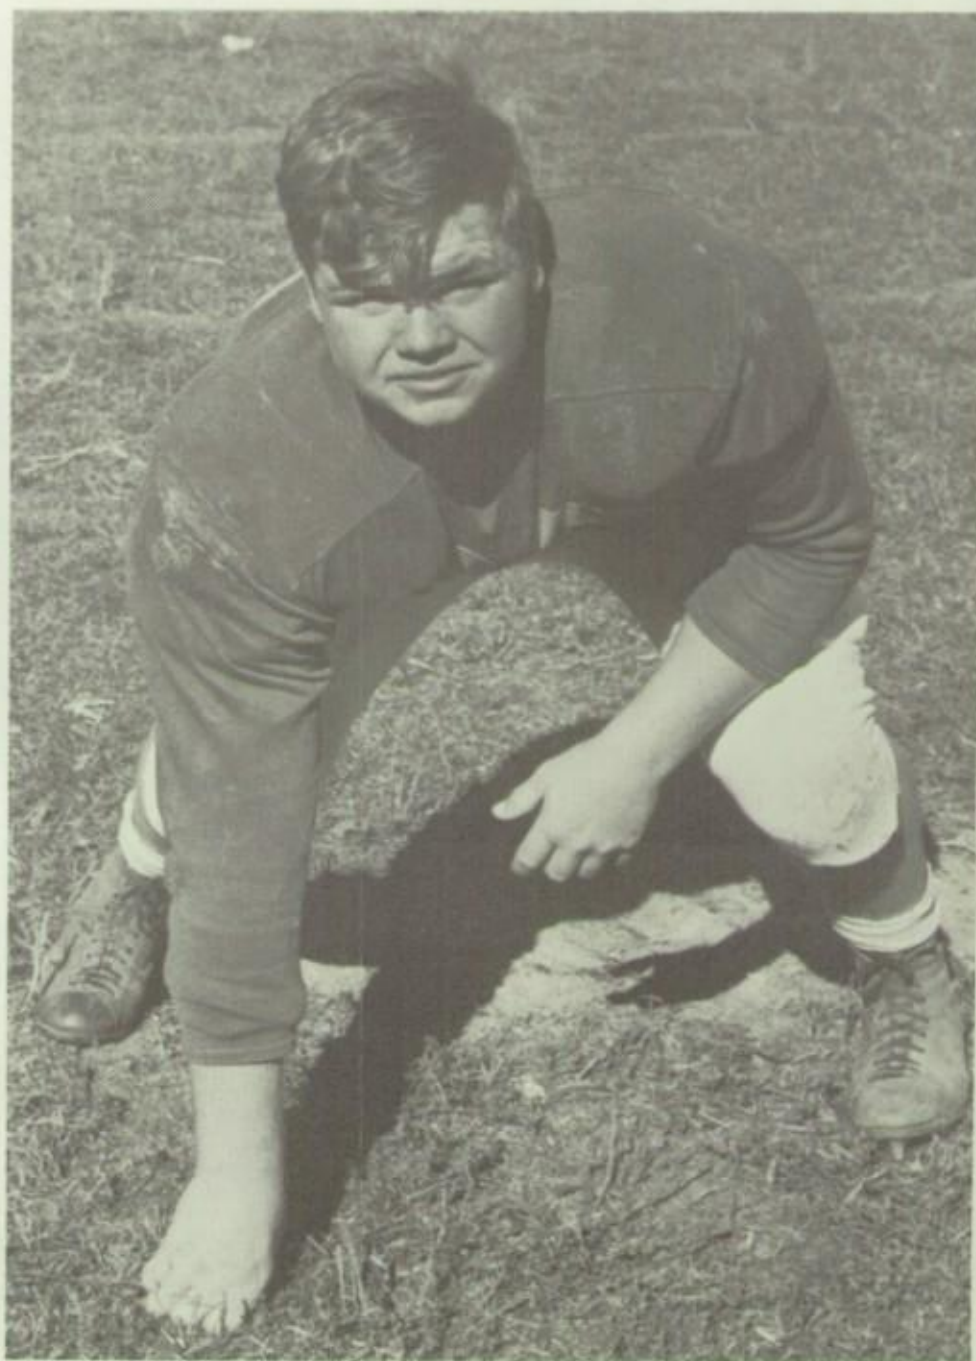

Team spirit and football ability mark Dan as one of the '60 season whizzes.

Dick Baumgarte

(Tackle)

Rating Honorable Mention in the All-Area Team choices, Dick was head team tackle, stopping sixty-two opponents for the season.

Co-captain Jack Reis

(Fullback)

Leading rusher and scorer of the year, Jack averaged 7.5 yds. per attempt and added 30 points to the SJH record.

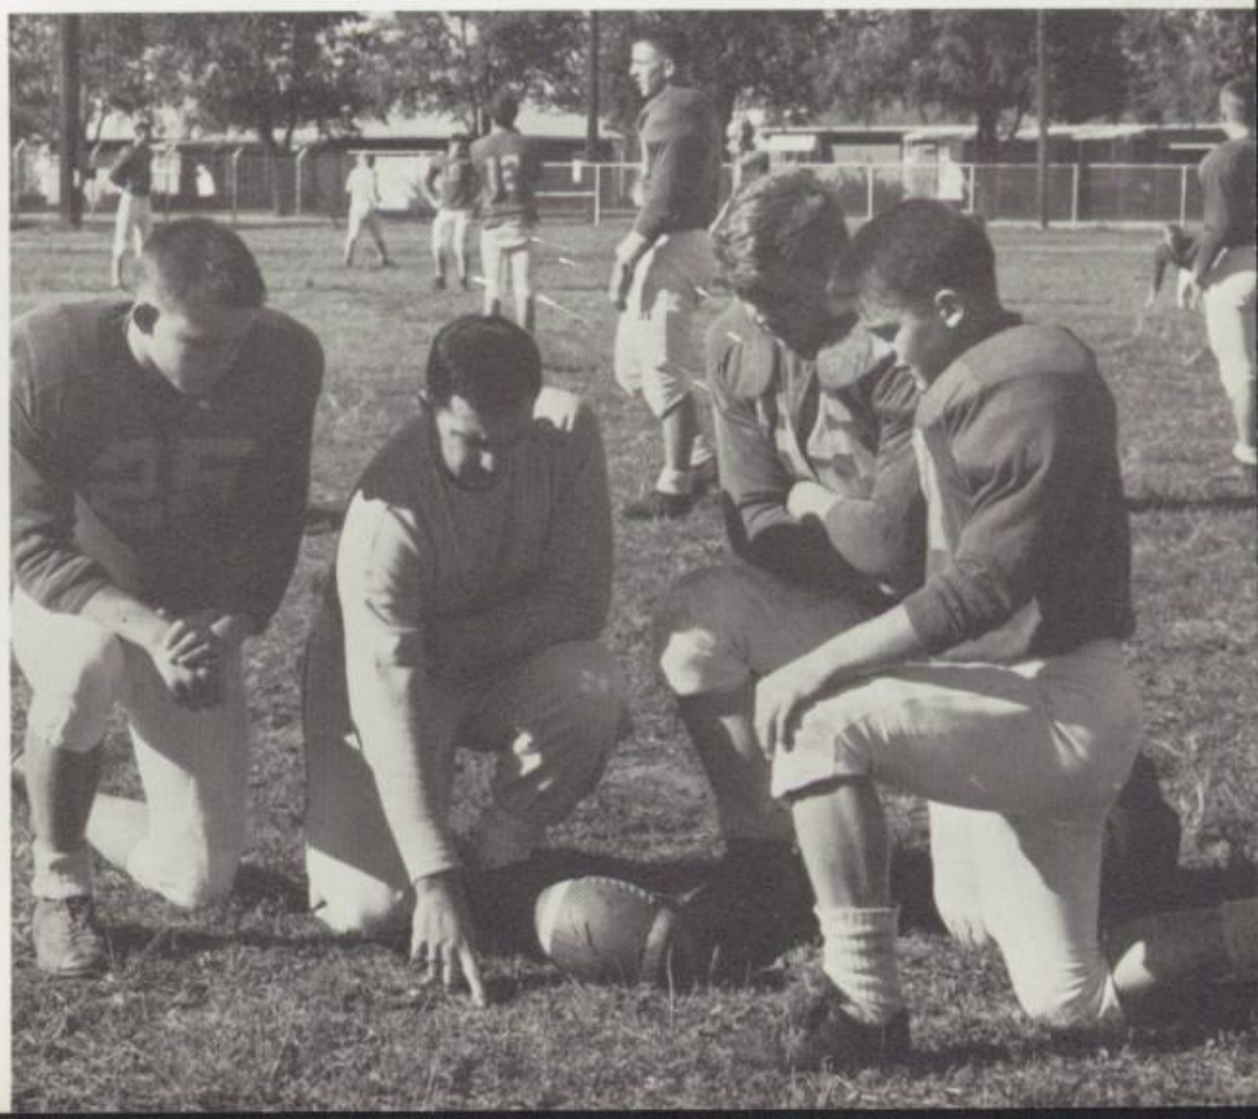

RUSHING YARDAGE

Player	Total Attempts	Average
Reis	96	7.5 yds.
Neumeier	93	6.1 yds.
Laudick	57	5.5 yds.
C. Ellis	63	1.9 yds.
G. Ellis	11	3.7 yds.
Hoehn	1	7.0 yds.
Geddings	11	2.4 yds.
Wiechart	9	3.7 yds.
Hotz	1	10.0 yds.
Team Total	342	5.4 yds.

Coach Ricco gets a "portable ride" from his fellow play-boys, Dick Baumgarte and Gene Hickey, after a teeming, rousing victory.

Planning the strategy that proved the downfall for five of the season's opponents, Coach Ricco and his three senior stars get together for a pre-game huddle.

"Catch a falling ball" is the theme song for Jim Neumeier as he heads down the field for another six-pointer.

Learning the techniques in aiding an injured player are Roger Schlereth, Ronald Grothaus, Gene Klaus, Larry Deitering and Paul Fetzner.

Jim Neumeier keeps the "hot iron on the fire" for his team with his excellent plays against the opposing Piqua team.

ing in a teammate's long pass, an SJH der is on the way again.

Ring around Jack is the aim of the Jay opponents as they gang up on Jack Reis only to find that the ball is floating loosely.

Barrelling past an opposing defender, Dusty Laudick carries the ball on to victory.

"Will we make it?" This is the question Slick Mueller and Pat Hanser are asking themselves while Patty Kaverman and Agnes Hempfling hope for the best. Peggy Gerdeman cheers the two high-jumpers on.

Celina ICHS, 68

May these games, O Lord, awake in us new strength so that we may approach our new task with renewed courage.

Give each of us the desire to play as well as he can and to observe the rules of the game.

Help us in every moment to preserve a genuine spirit of team play so that this game may fasten more securely the bond of our friendship. Amen.

Tournament Testimonial

Proudly the senior players, Dan Rupert, John Grone, and Jerry Osting, present well-earned Non-County Parochial and Sectional Trophies to Father Thomas Kuhn and Coach Bob Arnzen.

"The end of the trail has come for an extra long season of basketball—one that has really been a trail of glory and hard work. Besides our allotted number of eighteen games, success in the tournaments brought us four additional games and two additions to our trophy case! The first varsity trophies that have been won in four years!

As we now look forward to the work ahead, let us remember the words of Marshal Foch: 'It is with remnants that battles are won.' And mark our word that we have some real "remnants" with which to start off next year's season!"

When we have gone our separate ways,
all scattered far apart,
As leaves are scattered o'er the world
by playful gusts of wind,
And time has dimmed our memories.

May this book be the bridge
across the broad expanse of years . . .
Back to friends and happy times
within these hallowed halls,
Back to these, our High School days.
